

Lil' Cliff AND THE CLIFFHANGERS

The Lovin' Kind

The fun and music never stop and Lil' Cliff & the Cliffhangers keep right on making their blend of West Coast Jump and down home blues. This, their second collection of original and cover tunes, highlights the individual talents of the group.

Demonstrating his unique singing voice on lead vocals and toe-tapping harp playing is Lil' Cliff Bernard. Whether it's the upbeat fun of Richard Street's "Spank That Monkey" or the mellow sounds of Doc Pomus' "Lonely Avenue," Cliff makes the song his own and the lyrics come to life.

On the upright bass and vocals is Richard Street. His talents don't stop at slappin' the bass and singing. Seven of the cuts on this CD are written and arranged by Richard. His lead vocal on the Leiber and Stoller classic "Three Cool Cats" is laid-back cool.

You won't forget Dennis Phelps' smokin' axe playing. He does it all, from the acoustic blends in Cliff Bernard's "Creole Belle," to the rockin' riffs in "Up The Line." Holding it all together with his masterful drumming is Frank "Sticks" Patterson. Dig his intro to "Twenty-Nine Ways (To My Baby's Door)" and his solo beating on "Spank That Monkey." This man's moniker is truly deserved.
